

Royal Oak Lions Scholarship

The members of the Royal Oak Lions Club are proud to provide scholarships for post secondary education.

Scholarships will only be available to residents of the Royal Oak School District and/or those who have graduated from a school located in the city of Royal Oak.

The Committee may award one or more scholarships in amounts of at least $500. (All checks for scholarships will name both the school and the student awarded the scholarship.)

Selection Requirements

1. The candidate must be Royal Oak high school graduate or a resident of Royal Oak.
2. Priority will be given to a candidate who is hearing or vision impaired, or diabetic or who is pursuing a career in health and human services.
3. Economic need of the candidate shall be considered in the case where multiple candidates qualify for the scholarship.
4. Applicants must have a 2.5 GPA or above.
5. Candidates must have significant community service

Please complete the application below and provide the following information:
